GERMAN AMERICAN SOCIETY SPONSORS OPEN HOUSE FOR PROSPECTIVE SINGERS

Tuesday, January 17th at 7:00

Singers in the Peoria Area interested in singing German and American songs at a District Saengerfest with between 300 and 400 singers, are invited to attend a rehearsal at the Lindenhof on January 17th at 7:00. Come and enjoy singing a variety of songs all the way from Beethoven to Folk songs. We sing about 60% of our songs in German and 40% in English.

If you enjoy this type of singing and want to return to continue practicing you may want to join our society so you are able to sing at our Saengerfest at the Civic Center on April 14th. Our district includes Southern Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois and groups from German singing societies from those states will attend, giving us an opportunity to socialize with many interesting people.

The German American Society's Lindenhof, is located at 7601 N. Harker Drive, Peoria, south off of Pioneer Parkway between the Finish Line and Enterprise businesses.

Rehearsal begins at 7:00 PM and runs until 9:00 with a refreshment time at about 8:00 PM. For more information call Director, Al Hedeman at 309 685 7217.
